If Rents Are Raised, Also Raise Taxes

A very equitable proposition is proposed by the Real Estate Board, and a committee has been appointed by the city council to investigate all raises in rents, with an idea that if the rents are raised, so, too, should be the taxes on the property. Rents have been raised anywhere from 20 to 200 per cent, and the taxes on these rent yielding properties have not been raised to exceed 25 per cent, but when this committee and the city council gets through with them, some landlords will think their property is aviating. The writer having played both roles as landlord and tenant thinks he has a fair understanding of both sides of the question, and while we advocate a landlord should be paid a fair revenue on his holdings, he should not be allowed to drive thousands of people from the city by levying prohibitive rentals. Merchants and business men generally have gracefully or otherwise submitted to reduced profits; so, too, must everyone if we hope for a return to normal conditions, and it is not right that the landlords should continue to receive "war profits" while the rest of the community are compelled to reduce.

It Didn't Occur After All

Long months ago the calamity howler was shouting from the housetops, "Wait until after the holidays and everything will close up." We have had over a month after the holidays, January the hardest business month in the entire year when business settlements are almost compulsory and stocks are taken and the balance cast up, and still the amount of "closings" has been remarkably small. In fact, much less than a year ago, and locally there has been very few failures and collections have been remarkably good. Take the surplus and unnecessary employes have been let out, but many of them have either been restored to their old positions, or have found better ones. There naturally must be an adjustment, and a general reduction in the riot of high living we had for the several years of forced production, and the people themselves must make this change and come back to earth and live as normally as before the hiatus. No one should expect to have everything and everybody else submit to a reduction, and try to maintain the high income for themselves. It must affect us all, and the sooner we realize this and adjust our lives to the normality, the sooner we will enjoy that evenness of living so conducive to prosperity and happiness. Englewood has no room for the calamity howler; we are a fortunate, prosperous and happy locality and we should strike hands, one and all, to keep it so. Boost for Englewood and all that makes for its betterment in every field.

Mr. J. Mulvihill and family of 6556 Stewart ave. entertained at dinner last Sunday in honor of their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton, who have lately retured from their honeymoon trip through Ireland. The guest of honor was Rev. J. F. Ryan. With music and song and a delightful repast, it was a most enjoyable occasion.

A burglar entered the home of Arthur Sandberg at 340 63rd st., the night of Feb. 1st. Officer E. T. He is a young man and gave the name of Vernon Smith.

Wrong Numbers

If, for any reason, you are connected with a telephone other than the one you called, move the receiver hook slowly up and down four or five times, or until the operator answers. (The signal will not operate if hook is moved rapidly.)

Tell her that you have been given a wrong number, and repeat the number you called for.

This routine is necessary to avoid the possibility of having the nickel "collected" by the operator (if using a coin box telephone), or having the call charged (if using a measured service telephone). There is, of course, no charge where a wrong number is given, but sometimes the operator does not know about it and should be told.

New Books at Englewood Library

A long evening ahead—nothing to do—too cold to go out. If you are wise, you will have a number of books about, just for an evening like this. The library offers you tales of mystery, romance, and of the sea; books of travel, history, business, and of famous men and women. You have, no doubt, read about "The Americanization of Edward Bok." "The fascination of success hangs about this intimate account of how the Dutch immigrant boy became editor of the Ladies' Home Journal, of the work he did and of the people he knew—Roosevelt, Holmes, Kipling, Gladstone, and many others." This book is one of a good collection of biographies at the Hiram Kelly library. Other popular non-fiction books of recent purchase are:

Swift, Psychology and the Day's Work; Becker, U. S.—an Experiment in Democracy; Carlton, Elementary Economics; Williams, What's On the Worker's Mind; Boyle, Speculation and the Chicago Board of Trade; Loeb, Everyman's Child; Bennett, Our Women; Wetmore, First Book in English; Luckiesh, Lighting the Home; Clapp, Talking Business; Lee, Business Writing; Wollman, Textiles; Wolcott, Books of Games and Parties; Roper, Winning Football; Frothingham, Songs of Dogs; Baker, Modern American Plays; Adams, Something Else Again; Brown, Heart of New England; Masters, Domesday Book; Teasdale, Flame and Shadow; Untermeyer, New Adam; Lucas, Adventures and Enthusiasms; Wells, Outline of History; Smith, World's Food Resources; Hale, An American's London; Gibbs, People of Destiny; Santayana, Character and Opinion in the U. S.; Shackleton, Book of Chicago; Tomlinson, Sea and the Jungle; Hayes, A Brief History of the Great War; Turner, The Frontier in American History; Aldrich, Crowding Memories; Bok, The Americanization of Edward Bok; Paine, A Short Life of Mark Twain.

HALSTED AND WEST NEWS

All West of Halsted St. 55th to 79th Sts.

Monday will be Valentine's day.

Do you take advantage of Ogden Park? If not, why?

Ogden Park has many activities these days and you should read them in another column.

Lenten services are held in all the Catholic churches Wednesday and Friday evenings.

Valentines, from a dime to dollars, prettiest selection in town at Kellner's, 443 W. 63rd st., just east of post office.—adv.

Lincoln's anniversary will be well observed by all the schools today, and by patriotic organizations tomorrow, the 12th.

Window shades made to order at factory prices. Englewood Shade Factory, 1240 63rd st., phone Wentworth 9489.—adv.

Two Englewood men, Mark Taylor of 1218 63rd st., and Thomas McDermott, 6146 Wallace st., have been arrested and have confessed to the stealing of Oriental rugs.

The man who threw the odor bomb in several movie theatres was captured at the Rex theatre at 69th st. and Racine ave. He should be punished severely.

Don't overlook Reiner's new cut in prices on coal. See their display ad. Phone your order now. Their coal is the best that money can buy. —adv.tf.

There will be a Boy Scout celebration at Ogden Park hall, 6319 Ashland ave., under the auspices of Drexel Park church, next Sunday evening. Claude Hines, director of Boy Scouts, will preside.

Sadella Bransky of 6428 Green st. and Ruth Hawerost of 364 E. 61st st. are soon to visit New York, Boston and Philadelphia to select the latest modes in ladies' wear for the Cohien firm, with which they are associated. Some of their chums even hint this may be a honeymoon trip, but we are not so announcing it.

The primaries and election to be held on Tuesday the 22nd are not stirring up the people here to any extent. Doubtless Alderman Hogan will succeed himself in the 31st ward and the 32nd will be between "Benny" Wilson and Alderman Fisher. Both are very good men, and the Democrats may select a better, but he isn't talked of as yet.

There is altogether too much auto speeding west of Halsted st. and some of the reckless ones appear to think some of our best streets are speedways. Several children have been run over lately and it takes a spry one to keep from under their wheels.

Boy Scout Celebration

At Ogden Park hall, 6319 Ashland ave., Feb. 13th, 8 o'clock. Address by Mr. Claude Hines, director of Boy Scout work of the southwest division. All Boy Scouts either as individuals or troops are invited to attend.

"The Rose Maiden"

A cantata will be presented by the Opera club of the Lindblom High school with the above title. This is the first and original production, as the story was dramatized by Miss Mary E. Courtenay, formerly of Englewood High, and is under the musical direction of Wm. M. Mason. It was presented yesterday afternoon and the evening performance will be this Friday evening at 8 o'clock.

Immersion Service at Marquette Rd. Baptist Church

"The Baptisms Administered by John the Baptist—How? Why? What Relation Had They to Christian Baptism?" Rev. A. C. Hodgson will deal with these interesting and important questions next Sunday evening at the Marquette Road Baptist church, 67th and Laflin sts. Following the sermon he will immerse several recent converts. There will be special singing by the young ladies' quartette. The service will begin at 7:45, and the public is cordially invited.

Moron Attack

An attack occurred Friday night between May and Morgan and 74th and 75th sts. The Misses Marcellene and Norine Farley, sisters, residing at 1222 73rd st., and Mrs. Geo. Connors, of 7415 Sangamon st., had alighted from a street car and walked but a few blocks west when attacked by a man, who dragged Mrs. Connors into the prairie. The Foley girls screamed and Mrs. Connors' husband and brother rushed out of their home in answer. A call was sent to the Englewood police station and members of District 11 of the department of constabulary and the police "flivver" squad responded to the call, but owing to the dense fog were unable to apprehend the assailant.

Perez Council, K. C. Banquet Lincoln's Anniversary

Father Perez Council will celebrate Lincoln's birthday with a banquet and reception at the Cooper-Carlton hotel, 53rd st. and Hyde Park blvd., on Saturday evening, Feb. 12th. Guests will be seated at 7:15 p. m. sharp. Two prominent orators will deliver the addresses, one "Patriotism," the other "The Ladies." Tony Corcoran will sing and several other high-class entertainers will appear.

Joseph E. Cognac will furnish the music for the entertainment and dancing.

Lecturer Leonard D. Jacobs is chairman of arrangements.

Frank R. McGarr, Jr., heads Father Perez Council.

A very fine program of music and speeches inaugurated the new Infant Welfare Station at Ogden Park. It is hoped that the mothers of the neighborhood will avail themselves of the advantage of this splendid work. The hours of consultation will probably be on Tuesday and Friday afternoons.

For the benefit of those who may have missed the announcement last week, we wish to state again that the library hours have been changed as follows: Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays it is open from one to nine in the evening; Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays it is open from nine to six in the evening.

The standing in the grammar school basket-ball league including the games of February 5th, gives the lead to the Bass School with a total percentage of 360. The second place is now held by the Harp School with a total of 356 and the Earle has dropped to third with a total of 350.

BOY SCOUTS

Boy Scout Anniversary

The Boy Scouts of America celebrates its eleventh anniversary this week. The program for Chicago is as follows:

Scout Sunday—A. M.: Scout sermon, aimed at the adults. Evening, Boy services; each scout takes a non-scout.

Monday — Fathers' Day. Scouts do special good turns to fathers.

Tuesday — Mothers' day. Scouts do special good turns to mothers.

Wednesday — Community day. Scouts do special community good turns.

Thursday—School day. Scouts do special school good turns.

Friday—Adults good turn day. "Everybody be a good scout today." Adults do good turns that day.

Saturday—"America day."—Scout pilgrimage to Lincoln statue. Scouts will meet at 2:45 at Lake Shore Drive and North Ave. Evening, scout at own fireside—the home.

Over one million and a half of boys throughout the U. S. have received training in the ranks of the Boy Scout movement. Today there are registered over 400,000 boys between the ages of 12 and 18 years and 106,000 volunteer leaders as Scoutmasters, Asst. Scoutmasters and troop committeemen and commissioners.

The Scout Oath

1. To do my duty to God and my country, and to obey the Scout law;
2. To help other people at all times;
3. To keep myself physically strong, mentally awake and morally straight.

The Scout Law

1. A Scout is trustworthy.
2. A Scout is loyal.
3. A Scout is helpful.
4. A Scout is friendly.
5. A Scout is courteous.
6. A Scout is kind.
7. A Scout is obedient.
8. A Scout is cheerful.
9. A Scout is thrifty.
10. A Scout is brave.
11. A Scout is clean.
12. A Scout is reverent.

In Southwest District 970 Scouts are registered and more are waiting to join the movement. Troops are being organized in six churches and institutions at this writing.

"Boys are the stuff men are made of." So important is his future that what he will be ten years from now depends upon what the men of the district are willing to do for him now.

Income Tax Facts

Births, deaths and marriages during the year 1920 affect materially income tax returns for that year.

Millions of babies were added to family circles, each of whom brings an exemption of $200 in the parents' income tax return.

Widows and widowers who lost their husbands or wives during the year are especially affected. They are single for the purposes of the income tax law and are granted only an exemption of $1,000, unless the head of a family.

Persons who were divorced or separated by mutual agreements during the year also must consider themselves as single persons.

The status of the taxpayer on December 31, 1920, determines the amount of the exemptions. If on that day the taxpayer was married and living with wife or husband, claim may be made for the $2,000 exemption. If single, or married and not living with wife or husband on December 31, the exemption is only $1,000.

Persons who reached majority during the year and whose earnings for that period amounted to $1,000 or more, or $2,000 or more, according to their marital status, must file a return and pay a tax on their net income in excess of those amounts.

To avoid penalty, the return must be in the hands of the Collector of Internal Revenue for the district in which the taxpayer lives, or has his principal place of business, on or before midnight of March 15, 1921.

Mundelein for Cardinal

With the nearer approach of the assembling sacred college, the question as to who will be named the new American cardinal is being discussed with interest. Two names mentioned with increasing frequency are the Most Rev. Dennis J. Dougherty, archbishop of Philadelphia, and the Most Rev. George W. Mundelein, archbishop of Chicago.

The Hardings have begun to move from Marion to the White House. Now, Mr. Harding, don't try to carry the birdcage and the clotheswringer in one hand, and the laundry basket and the coal hod in the other.

KIWANIS PAPER TO MOVE HERE

At the meeting of the international officers of the Kiwanis Club in the Morrison hotel yesterday it was arranged to remove the offices of the official magazine, "The Kiwanis," from Washington to international headquarters here.

New Books at Hiram Kelly Library

Found! In the public library, just the book you have heard so much about and wanted so much to read. "Main Street," by Sinclair Lewis. The American small town we've all lived in some time or other. We recognize the streets and know the people and we sympathize with the doctor's eager young bride in her disheartening first view and her years of revolt against the town's complacent ugliness. A nice sense of humor presents the town and Carol without preaching at either but a nice sense of human values shows Carol gradually "growing in grace" to the point where she realizes that after all Gopher Prairie, Minn., will find and achieve its own beauty from within and perhaps she and her children may have a small part in the finding.

Other new books which will interest all alert people, and may be found on the shelves at Hiram Kelly Library, are:

Novels

Galsworthy, In Chancery; Poole, Blind; Burroughs, Tarzan the Untamed; Porter, Egan; Wiley, The Wildcat; Sullivan, The Rapids; Tompkins, Joanna Builds a Nest; Masters, Mitch Miller; Olmstead, Stafford's Island; Sinclair, The Quirt; Pryde, Marqueray's Duel; Bojer, Life; Onions, Bridge of Kisses; Sedgwick, Third Window; Hinkson, Love of Brothers; Bailey, Trumpeter Swan; Jepson, Loudwater Mystery; Glasgow, The Builders; Dostoevskii, The Idiot; Swinnerton, September; White, Rose Dawn; Witwer, There's No Base Like Home; Cohen, Come Seven; McSpadden, Famous detective stories: Fox, Erskine Dale; Mason, The Summons; Woolf, Night and Day; Mundy, Ivory Trail; Couperus, The Inevitable; Wharten, The Age of Innocence; McKenna, Lady Lilith; Johnston, Mrs. Warren's Daughter; McGrath, Drums of Jeopardy; Dell, Moon-Calf; McCutcheon, West Wind Drift.

The small son, Thomas, of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Rowley of 6753 Loomis St., is seriously ill at his home.

ALDERMAN ALBERT J. FISHER, 32nd WARD

Non-partisan Nominee to Succeed Himself Non-partisan Aldermanic Election Day

WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY, TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 22, 1921

TAX PAYERS AND RENT PAYERS

At this time of impending increases in already burdensome taxes and of still higher rents there is no election at which you can make use of your vote for another two years which will as profoundly affect your pocket-books and your ability to continue to do business, to work or even to continue to live within the corporate limits of Chicago. The real problem facing us today is not your present taxes or your rents. It is even more serious. It is to prevent if possible both your taxes and your rents from still soaring upward to the very clouds. It behooves you to give this more than a passing thought before going to the polls on the above date. Furthermore, it behooves you not only to think about it but to go to the polls with your friends and do your part by voting about it.

Note—Bear in mind that under the new Non-Partisan Aldermanic State Law, both men and women vote for this office and may do so without declaring their political party at the polling places.

If you approve the record of my fifteen years of public service please remember that your approval and confidence will do no good in this emergency, when there is a concerted attempt to defeat my re-election, unless you go to the polls on the above date and deposit that approval in the ballot-box in the shape of a vote for my re-election. Votes and not sympathy are all that are counted by the judges and clerks I shall sincerely appreciate your support. You cannot overlook the date —Washington's Birthday.

DO NOT FAIL TO VOTE

ALDERMAN FISHER'S PLATFORM
Fully Sustained by His Voting Record

No more boosting of present burdensome taxes and high rents. No more running the city hopelessly into debt by over appropriations. Let Chicago keep her expenditures within her income, and render to the people a full dollar's worth of service for every dollar of taxes collected.

ALDERMAN FISHERS RECORD

AND SAFETY. Our first mortgages upon improved and producing farms have never lost a penny of interest or principal to our hundreds of satisfied customers. They are secured by a first lien upon indestructable property—agricultural land which yields annual and successive harvests which always find a ready market. These securities are non-fluctuating—in which respect they differ from a bond or a stock investment which is always affected by market conditions. Every farm mortgage which we make remains continuously under our supervision until it is paid off in full. Interest and principal are collected and remitted to you without charge. Such an investment is as simple as a savings account and pays over twice as much.

In a generation we have built up a reputation for care and conservatism which has brought us customers from over 30 states. We will be glad to send you our booklet and list of desirable mortgages without obligation.

Camp Fire Items

Do not forget the date of the big southwest district council fire at Lewis Champlin school Feb. 15th in the assembly hall at 8 p. m. All girls in the southwest district are urged to be present. If your guardian can't come get mother to come. All mothers and friends of girls interested in Camp Fire work are cordially invited to be present.

The field guardian is to be a guest of Mrs. Ellis' group, 5653 Green st., next Thursday, where she will make both guardian and girls wood gatherers.

Last Tuesday evening at the community center program at Lewis Champlin school, Camp Tatonekiya gave a demonstration of the proper way to salute their flag and Camp Kewanee Alan put on a short patriotic council fire.

Chaperoned by their guardians, forty Camp Fire girls went through Ward's bakery at 56th and LaSalle sts. From the receiving of the flour the girls followed the process of bread making until the bread was baked and even further, for each girl was presented with a loaf of hot bread and a delicious cake. The girls are to write 100-word essays on the trip. We were very fortunate in our courteous guides, who explained every point so clearly.

The girls sang a cheer to the guide upon leaving. Upon arriving home, from the stories told, each girl sampled her goodies. One little maid didn't wait that long.

Plans are all made for the birthday party. We will tell you all about it at the council.

Through the courtesy of the Englewood Electric Shop the girls were enabled to use electric candles at the demonstration at Community Center.

Friday night, Feb. 4th, was a social meeting for the girls of Mrs. Musser's group. The meeting was held at the home of Dorothy Weidner at 7252 Yale ave. The girls enjoyed marvelous refreshments, after dancing, and finally departed with their guardian, who saw them home.

The Chittamango Camp spent a very enjoyable morning at Marthen's Marble Co., where they were shown around and entertained by the father of one of the girls, who explained all sorts of remarkable things to them. The girls arrived home with numerous samples of marble which were displayed with great enthusiasm to parents and various relatives.

Mary Louise Campbell, of the Chittamango camp, and her mother, Mrs. Campbell, are leaving Thursday for Madison, Wis., where they are to spend a week end with Margaret Campbell, who is attending the University of Wisconsin.

Her many friends will regret to learn of the death in Los Angeles, Cal., last week, of Mrs. Mary Keane Angsten, who lived here all her life. The remains will be brought home for burial in Mount Olivet.

The Englewood Woman's Club, at its Monday's meeting, entertained with an old fashioned Colonial luncheon, after which a lecture and program was enjoyed by the usual large gathering of ladies.

Mrs. M. Meenan of 6046 May St. entertained six ladies Wednesday with luncheon, at her home.

Appeal for Oak Haven Home

The Oakhaven appeal for contributions for a "community center for old folks" at Western ave. and 113th pl., is meeting with hearty response from individuals, women's clubs and civic organizations according to Mrs. George S. Haskell, chairman of the campaign committee.

Presidents of the women's clubs in the Third district called together by Mrs. W. J. Roberts, president of the district federation, met at the Englewood Woman's club last Monday to formulate plans for aiding the project. Each reported that Oakhaven was receiving not only indorsement but support and financial assistance from the membership of her organization.

Among the club presidents at the round table conference who volunteered to present the appeal for funds to augment the building fund to their organizations were: Mrs. Nonda K. Anderson, Hamilton Park Woman's Club; Mrs. W. C. Cooms, Gresham Woman's Club; Mrs. M. T. Hayes, Palos Park Woman's Club; Mrs. R. A. Napier, Current Topics Club; Miss Marie Hesse, Englewood Woman's Club; Mrs. G. E. Stanton, Fortnightly of Englewood; Mrs. Frederick Wernicke, Auburn Thirty Club; Mrs. Thomas R. Beman, Ridge Woman's Club; Mrs. Chester Mahon, Mathesis Woman's Club; and Mrs. H. E. McDonald of Chicago Lawn Woman's Club. Mrs. Charles R. Clark, Mrs. Henry A. Morgan and Mrs. George Haskell spoke for Oakhaven.

Mrs. George S. Haskell

Seven optional plans of contributing to Oakhaven are outlined. They are: Immediate payment by check or cash; a half cash donation and balance in three months; pledge of payment three months later; cash on demand when building operations have begun; payment of cash within 30 days after notice of building is given by the board of directors. Two methods of aiding the maintenance fund are included: cash on Oct. 1, 1921, and for five years thereafter, or cash on the first day of the month following the opening of the home and for five years thereafter on the same date.

A series of neighborhood meetings in the interests of Oakhaven are to be held in every section of the south side and eventually throughout the city. Mrs. W. L. Gregson, 11638 Longwood drive, held the first of these at her home on Friday, Feb. 11th. Workers' meetings are held at headquarters, 357 W. 63rd st., on Tuesdays and Fridays from 3 to 5 p. m.

U. P. Kitchen Band

There is music in everything. The common, prosaic dishpan, the blackened skillet, the despised wash boiler, and the patience-trying egg beater all have music in them. It remained for Mrs. Blanche Battles to bring the music to the surface. She has shared the secret with the young ladies of the Second United Presbyterian Sabbath school, and they are now able to get a tune out of every kitchen utensil known. Everything from a nutmeg grater to a flour bin has been pressed into service and the result is a band de luxe.

They play everything from "Blowing Bubbles" to the "Sextette from Lucia," and offer them with all the frills John Phillip Sousa ever heard of.

The performance is really wonderful and Englewood people will be given the opportunity of hearing the concert on Tuesday, Feb. 15th, 8 p. m., at the Second United Presbyterian church, 65th St. and Parnell Ave.

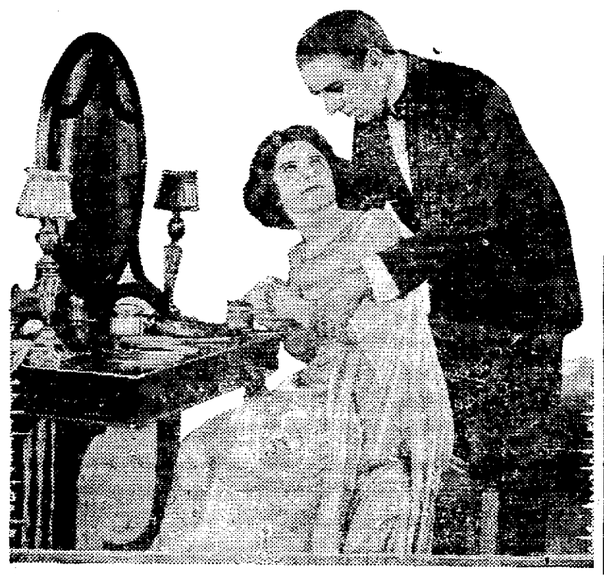
"The Riddle Woman"

From the Famous Stage Success of Mme. Bertha Kalich
By Carl Jacoby



"The Riddle Woman" is a brilliant portrayal of the conflicting moods of the eternal feminine. It amazingly discloses the innermost mysteries of a woman's nature by revealing the destinies of three modern types caught in the toils of a fascinating and passionate love profiteer. It is magnificent in the grandeur of its settings, the splendor of its gowns and the vivid personalities of an all star cast.

ELAINE STERNE'S FAMOUS STORY

"The Road to Ambition"

As Bill Matthews, an energetic, inventive young man, Conway Tearle has added to the long list of great screen characterizations, one more, which will take its well-deserved place in the foremost ranks.

Through an invention for the purpose of making use of waste steel, Matthews is lifted from sordid surroundings to a life of ease and luxury. He employs a young woman of one of society's foremost families, who is in need of money, to help him acquire the polish and education, lack of which he is so keenly feels. The young woman, desiring his money, tries to inveigle him into a marriage with her, but fails, and he marries the girl of his choice, even though she has confessed he does not possess her love. However, when the final close-up is flashed upon the screen, it finds Bill Matthews happy in the love of a good and beautiful wife.

ENGLEWOOD THEATRE

There is no gainsaying the fact that in gathering the cast for his present company Manager Charles Robinson has mustered the best bunch of talent obtainable for his "Parisian Flirts" to be known as the most pretentious and withal enjoyable vehicle on the circuit. It is a production for the masses as well as the classes and a visit to the Englewood theatre where the troupe is booked as the next attraction commencing week of Feb. 13th should forthwith convince the skeptics of the fact. There is no opportunity of canal. Something is going on all the time. There are songs that are both lilting and tuneful, pretty girls, who know how to wear stunning gowns and dance entrancingly, to charm and captivate you, comedians and singers who understand their business, vaudeville acts and specialties that come under the caption of real novelties, and a two act burletta sure to annihilate the most aggravated case of "blues."

Matinees as usual every day.

Manager Coston, true to his regular form, presents a delightful bill for the coming week at the Harvard. Today and tomorrow, Friday and Saturday, matinee and night, he offers that most likable of all stars, Charles Ray, in "Nineteen and Phyllis." Mr. Ray departs from his usual country boy role, and is seen as a dapper youth whose array of clothes is his greatest delight. Having been invited to a party by the village belle—played by Clara Horton—he had used his meagre savings to procure an elegant "stove pipe" hat and evening clothes. It is while on his way to the party that Mr. Ray discovers the burglar and captures him. Upon his arrival at the party he receives much praise for his bravery, but it is little consolation, for his splendid hat is in ruins as a result of the roof escapade. Also the unusually funny comedy, "Going Through the Rye," and Pathe News. Saturday matinee only, "The Veiled Mystery."

For Sunday, Feb. 13th only, exclusive advance showing on the south side of the wonderful picturization of the great stage play, "The Great Lover," an intimate comedy of back stage life. The story centers about Jean Parrel, "the great lover," played by John Sainpolis, and the principal characters of the play are operatic singers. The plot is woven around the life of these people in their work, and the crisis occurs during the first and second acts of the opera, "Don Giovanni," between the three who form the eternal triangle. Also Buster Keaton in his best comedy, "The Scarecrow"; Pathe News, and, matinee only, Elmo Lincoln in "The Flaming Disk."

For Monday, Feb. 14th, matinee and night, the ever charming Billie Burke in her latest delectable photo comedy, "The Education of Elizabeth." As a chorus girl of the slangy kind, though one who despite her rouge and paint, has a golden heart, Miss Burke is unusually artistic. She is a comedienne of the finest quality and her daintiness has fine appeal. It would be scarcely fair to reveal the story of "The Education of Elizabeth," but it is entertaining enough to satisfy the most jaded taste. The laughs are many and the supporting company headed by Donald Cameron is quite clever. Also International News, Bruce Scenic reels and a dandy two part comedy.

As a special attraction for Wednesday and Thursday, Feb. 16th and 17th, Manager Coston brings direct from the loop for matinee and night performances, the star glorious, Geraldine Farrar, in an impassioned drama of the mysteries of a woman's soul, "The Riddle Woman." It is a brilliant portrayal of the conflicting moods of the eternal feminine. It amazingly discloses the innermost mysteries of a woman's nature by revealing the destinies of three modern types caught in the toils of a fascinating and passionate love profiteer. It is magnificent in the grandeur of its settings, the splendor of its gowns and the vivid personalities of an all star cast.

As a coming attraction extraordinary billed for Monday and Tuesday, Feb. 21st and 22nd, the Harvard offers William DeMille's alluring production, "Midsummer Madness," adapted from the great story, "His Friend and His Wife." The plot centers around two married couples who are close friends. One of the wives is so lavish with the outward expressions of her love for her husband that he becomes a bit tired of her. Now that she is so completely won he longs for new fields to conquer. His friend's wife, on the other hand, is blessed with a husband who is more interested in business than in her, she craves romance. So the overloved husband and his friend's underloved wife are attracted to each other. In a moment of folly, they commit an indiscretion that nearly ruins four lives.

How few people realize what it means to be able to go to a neighborhood theatre and see a good company of actors and actresses play such plays as "Forever After," which will hold the boards at the National all next week. This play was only a short time ago playing in the loop at top prices and now you can see an equally good company play it for one-third the price you would have to pay in the loop. The National theatre company needs no eulogies, as they are doing capacity business, but we cannot refrain from praising them to the sky for what they have done for the National theatre and the south side. If you anticipate going to see "Forever After" next week better order your seats in advance or you stand a chance of having to come back home without seeing what you went for.

Woodlawn Theatre

Manager Karzas of the Woodlawn theatre again offers a par excellence week at this theatre beautiful, and beginning Sunday, Feb. 13th, and for four days, matinee and nights, they offer the star glorious, Geraldine Farrar, in "The Riddle Woman," an exotic drama of strong and weak women, the most wonderful play of the day. In "The Riddle Woman," Geraldine Farrar portrays a woman who could do anything—spare no one—in her mad, selfish worship of her husband. Yet, could she sacrifice a motherless young girl to the passions of a man she knew to be a rake—a viper who won the confidence of women with a love he did not feel? Could she buy her freedom from the power of this villain at the cost of the girl's innocence? Do you know what she did? If you are a man, do you know what a woman in such a position would do? If you are a woman, do you know? Women, the sphinx of the ages, is equally a riddle to herself. In writing "The Riddle Woman" Carl Jacoby has cleverly brought out many of the moods of the eternal feminine. Other selected specialties.

For Thursday, Friday and Saturday, matinee and nights, the offering is Conway Tearle in Elaine Sterne's "The Road to Ambition." "The Road to Ambition" is an ideal vehicle for Mr. Tearle, as it gives him an opportunity to display his talents in a role that has great latitude in the environment and development of the character. He is first seen as Bill Matthews, a husky young foreman in a steel mill. Bill is ambitious, and knows how to use his brain as well as his brawn, although he is sadly handicapped by lack of education. He evolves a method of using waste material and turning it into a valuable by-product, and thus takes his first big step on "the road of ambition." Overcoming, by dint of study and application, his ignorance, he then becomes a powerful factor in his field of endeavor. There is a pretty love theme running throughout the story, which is a colorful one, with plenty of the virile action the photoplay enthusiasts so enjoy. Also other selected reels of top notch plays and playlets.

MARLOWE HIPPODROME

Under the change of local managers the Marlowe hippodrome is meeting with great success. The Pantages circuit of all the big time acts pleases the audience and the pictures are the best procurable. Five big acts in addition to pictures every night, and six of the best for the Saturday and Sunday specials. Get the Marlowe habit and you will see the best of shows at all times.

Beginning the coming week a new era of vaudeville bookings will govern at the Marlowe Hippodrome and the Pantages circuit will hereafter supply the talent. All lovers of sprightly vaudeville know that the Pantages bookings are the best procurable and with a variety and versatility that few agencies are able to compete with. Owing to the hour of our going to press being somewhat early, we are unable to give the attractions for this week, or for Saturday and Sunday, but both Mr. Koffman and Mr. Plough, the proprietors, are making the bookings, and it would be difficult to find two more capable or competent men in that line, both being producers and owners in the vaudeville line for many years and at the head of the list at that.

The regular program at the Marlowe is for Mondays, five splendid vaudeville acts, as well as the best of exclusive photoplays, a comedy and travelogues. For Tuesdays, they offer besides the regular program the song publishers' revue, as well as local song contests. On Wednesdays and Thursdays, five superb vaudeville acts and a first showing photoplay selected as well as comedies and news of the day. On Friday they have a fine professional vaudeville revue, including seven or more acts, introducing the latest and best from the big circuits. On Saturdays and Sundays, six of the highest class vaudeville acts, photoplays and comedies and travel pictures of standard merit. Complete changes of programs are made every Monday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday. Continuous performances Sunday from 2 to 11 o'clock and always a children's matinee on Saturday afternoon.

EMPRESS THEATRE

The Empress theatre is drawing extraordinary crowds at this season. In fact they have gained over the attendance of the early summer when they closed for the heated season, and the beautiful new decorations are a source of delight as the effect upon the entrance is at once joyous and cheerful.

The programs arranged by Manager Mitchell are away above any before attempted in any outside failing source of enjoyment, and house, and the top liner attractions of the best "loop" houses are seen riety of entertainment is a never-instead of the regular routine of hoop rolling, a contortionist and a bar act, every variety of performance will be seen at the Empress with grand musical features predominating. From the best of grand opera to the jaziest jazz, from the dear old melodies of our grandmother's days to the latest songs of the period, and from every instrument from the piccolo to the latest saxaphone, the one stringed Chinese fiddle to the richest violincello and interspersed with these comes acts of wonder, athletic, and mystifying, as well as feats of strength and daring. In all the Empress programs are calculated and studied to please everyone at all times, and blase indeed must be the man or woman who cannot enjoy an afternoon or evening at this excellent house. The pictures are good first view features

NEW REGENT

The phenomenal success of the New Regent at 6826-28 Halsted St. is bound to continue just so long as the management continues the most excellent programs they are now offering. Their plays are all of the best, and strictly up to the minute.

For today, Friday, matinee and night, they offer that bit of real Scotch humor and pathos, "Bunty Pulls the Strings." We all remember how through a six months' engagement in the city theatres this delightful play drew crowded houses to the last, and we who have seen it know that the photoplay of this popular play is even better than the stage work. The story of the resourceful little Scotch girl who saved her father from disgrace, married him off to an old sweetheart and withal captured her own "Weel-um" and arranged for a double wedding for the price of one with true Scotch thrift. It is good from start to finish and must be seen to be appreciated. Also the two part scream comedy, "The Simp."

For tomorrow, Saturday, Feb. 12th, they offer the star that never disappoints, Elaine Hammerstein, in "Pleasure Seekers." Suppose you were the daughter of a country minister and you met and loved a young man who had been cast adrift by a wealthy father, because of the son's reckless ways. You married him, reformed him, in fact made a man out of him and then were informed that you were considered a mere fortune hunter. What would you do? See what Elaine Hammerstein does in her new Selznick picture, "Pleasure Seekers." Also International News, Snub Pollard comedy and, matinee only, "King of the Circus."

On Sunday, Feb. 13th, the New Regent offers a big double bill, continuous from 2 to 11:30 p. m.—Owen Moore in "The Chicken in the Case" and Larry Semon's special two part comedy, "The Sportsman." Owen Moore has a reputation as a lover and as "Steve Perkins" he does put up with some trials and tribulations. He has to ardently woo a lady he has no love for, in fact is disagreeable to him while his sure enough sweetheart must look on. There you have it and you may know what Owen Moore makes out of the many situations like it in "The Chicken in the Case." Larry Semon, the wonderful acrobatic comedian, does some wonderful stunts in "The Double Adventure," but you must see it to appreciate them.

A great bill for Monday, Feb. 14th, is the bright, beautiful and talented little actress, Madge Kennedy, in "The Highest Bidder." Everybody who has ever been in love, and everybody who ever expects to be in love will want to see Madge Kennedy in her latest picture. It is a story of the great love that comes but once to every man, but which some men are too blind to see or too stubborn to follow. Madge Kennedy plays the little fortune-hunter with all her winsome charm that has won her so fervent an allegiance among followers of the screen. Also a rousing farce comedy in two parts and a travelogue of interest.

SAINT VALENTINE

One of the most characteristic customs of young folks a generation ago, was sending valentines on the 14th of February. It is a custom dating back many hundreds of years and is said to have originated in the pretty idea that the mating of birds begins on this date. Young men of thirty years ago thought long and deeply about their valentines. They blushingly bought highly decorated affairs of lace and pictures, containing highly sentimental pledges of affection, and many illustrations of hearts and cupids.

A great many heart throbs went into these affection messages. Young men watched with bated breath to see how their best girls took them. They generally received them with satisfaction.

Modern young folks are afraid of being thought ridiculous. They have mostly handed over the valentine custom to the kid crowd, who feel quite like grown ups when they experience attacks of calf love.

The Chicago Rabbinical Association resolved yesterday that henceforth in the Reformed Jewish church, nonalcoholic wine will be used for sacramental purposes. Under the Volstead act rabbis are allowed to dispense wine to members of their congregation to a maximum of ten gallons a year to each family.

Madison St., and Stanley Sluzus, Van Buren and Clark Sts.

For years undertakers have been required to license their automobile hearses as trucks. But the 1921 applications of several undertakers were returned yesterday with instructions to reapply under a new state ruling that lists hearses of less than 5,000 pounds weight as pleasure cars.

Mrs. J. Dwyer of 7618 May St. is a patient at St. Bernard's hospital, suffering from injuries received when she fell off a street car last Saturday afternoon.

SULLIVAN'S SENSE AND NONSENSE

The editor may dig and toil
Till his finger tips are sore,
Then some poor fish is sure to say,
"I've heard that joke before."
—Charley Lonsdale in "The Breeze"

The festive politician is again abroad in the land and an election is nigh.

Casey insists that "the only way to hov the last wurd wid yer woife is to whisper ut."

The groundhog didn't scare us a bit this year; six weeks more of such weather as we have been having has no terrors for Chicagoans.

Suppose you send a practical present of a heaping basket of substantial good things to some poor family this Christmas—hully chee! how happy it will make you.

The infernal revenue and income tax experts are searching the inmost corners of a fellow's pockets these days, and cheating won't pay. Better pony up straight.

If former Governor Lowden gets the secretary-of-the-navy portfolio, I am in the contest for admiral of Bubbly creek and the drainage canal.

Some patriot (?) wants to have the president's salary exempt from income tax. Why exempt the big man and make the little fellows pay? Exempt all government employes or none.

Us favored Chicagoans may extend our sympathy to the unfortunate Californians who are suffering from cold, wet weather. Better come here to spend the winters, folks; glad to meet you.

An Englewood young man who was cutting a wide swath with his "sweetie" at a city restaurant, asked the waiter, "Do you serve lobsters?" and was met with the instant answer, "Sure we do, just sit down."

A book store man told me of a lady who, looking at the Bibles, admired greatly a $20 volume, but "couldn't afford to buy it just now, as she just bought a $30 poker set."

Now that automobile drivers have licenses from the governor, the sheriff, the mayor and the chief of police, I can't see why they pass up the ward committeeman and the precinct captain—what?

Tommy White, an ex-prizefighter, called Alderman Lyle nasty names and "took a swipe" at John in the city hall Wednesday. Result, Tommy White knocked down and out, and learned that John won't stand for any foolishness. Next!

Several of our readers have told me that the geese are flying north, which leads Casey to say, "Thot's nothin', Oi know iv manny thot flew as far west as California months ago, whin they might hov had a mild winther here at home at liss throuble an' ixpinse."

"I can't understand," groaned little Willie, with both hands pressed to his stomach, "why good things like mince pie and plum pudding make me sick, while nasty things like castor oil and nux vomica make me well. Confound it! It ought to be the other way about."

Passenger: "I suppose you've had some hairbreadth escapes during your seafaring career?" Mate: "Yes, indeed; I was nearly drowned once." "Were you, really? How did it happen?" "I went to sleep in the bath, mum, and forgot to turn the water off."

During the Gallipoli campaign, an argument arose amongst a batch of officers as to which possessed the louder odor, a Turk or a goat. So to settle a wager they shut the colonel up in a tent with a goat; and the colonel fainted. After restoratives had been copiously administered they brought in a Turk. And the goat fainted!

For once Judge Richardson was shocked out of his dignity. The case had to do with a young man whose sanity was questioned. "You should have an alienist examine this boy," remarked his honor. "Nothing doing," shouted the father, to the astonishment of the court. Then he added: "An American doctor's good enough for me."

Last summer an Englewood mother took her perfect little gentleman of a son with her to the country and notwithstanding her careful watch, the youngster stole away one afternoon and she was soon hot on his trail, fearing all sorts of things for the dear little thing. Meeting one of the farm boys she said: "Have you seen anything of my little son Reginald?" "Yes'm, the fellers hev taken' him over to the creek swimmin'" answered the boy. "Oh, heavens, I'm afraid he will be drowned; for goodness sake help me rescue him," and the consoling little farm chap answered: "Oh, don't git skeered, Ma'am, he won't git drowned. The fellers is only goin' to shove him into that there two-foot mud hole wots full of snappin' turtles an' blood suckers and see how many'll fasten onto him—that's all."

Col. "Billy" Spinks in the off times when he isn't telling fishing stories of George Wollacott, makes a specialty of good Scotch stories. Here is the latest he handed me: Two Scotchmen with a thirst counted up their joint possessions and found that they could just cover the price of a drink of whiskey. They went into the nearest saloon and ordered one drink, Sandy putting down the money for the same. Then arose a discussion as to how it could be disposed of to the best advantage. It was no Alphonse and Gaston discussion. Each was disposed to stand on his own right, while at the same time admitting the claim of the other. At the critical moment a stranger entered the saloon. With a wink of his eye at his companion Sandy turned to the newcomer and said, "Will you have a drink with us?" Supposing that the others had drank before his entrance, the stranger said heartily, "I will," and emptied the glass. There was an uncertain pause for a moment and then the third man said, "Come on, boys, and have one on me." They had it. As they went out Sandy wiped his mouth and said, "See, mon, it worked." "Yes," was the reply, "but, oh! what a risk."

The Englewood Woman's Club

The Englewood Woman's Club held its regular meeting February 7th. The morning program was a continuation of the study of the Colonial period and was in charge of Mrs. A. J. Fisher, chairman of the Department of Literature.

The third number of the Colonist, an animated magazine, appeared with a very attractive frontispiece, "A Salem Tower Witch." Contributions to the magazine were original poems by club members and a paper entitled "The Forerunners of Our Famous New England Poets." Quotations were given from the best writers of poems of the Colonial period, Anise Bradstreet, Thomas Godfrey and the Rev. Wigglesworth. MacDowell's 1620 and Witches' Dance were admirably played by Edwin Stanley Seder, pianist.

Interest in the morning meeting was greatly augmented by the decorative effects and an attractive display of antiques introduced by Mrs. G. L. Lock.

Next Monday morning, Feb. 14th, Mrs. John Charles Young, chairman of the department of music, will present Mr. D. A. Clippenger, who is a teacher, conductor and author of a number of books. He is conductor of "The Chicago Madrigal Club," "Carson Pirie Scott & Company Choral Society" and "Swift & Company Male Chorus." His subject will be, "The Making of a Song." This lecture will be illustrated by songs of different form and periods.

Miss Evelin Berger will be the soloist. Miss Burrows, pianist. Mrs. J. A. Stevens will give a poem entitled "An Old Song," with musical setting. The Current Events will be given by Mrs. J. K. Brittain.

The afternoon session will be especially interesting. The Princess Cautacuzene, formerly Miss Julia Grant of Chicago, grand daughter of President Grant, will speak.

The twenty-fifth anniversary of the club will be celebrated by a luncheon to be held at the Edgewater Beach Hotel, Thursday, Feb. 10th.

Englewood High School Gleanings

Faculty Notes

Just a year ago the plasterers, after a long strike, began the final stage in the completion of the building. Now every available bit of space is crowded with pupils. To care for the increase in attendance several new teachers have joined the faculty. Among them are Miss Hollis in the department of Spanish and French, Miss Radebaugh in domestic science, Mr. Hunter in drawing, Mr. Stoneking in science, and Mrs. Mather in the commercial department. We are glad to welcome Mr. Bell, who has returned to us from the continuation school at Swift's.

We regret to learn that Miss Hedeen is still too ill to return at the opening of the new semester.

Mrs. Wines was on the sick list last week. We are glad to have her with us again and hope that she is completely recovered.

We are glad that Miss Bonnem has returned. We were sorry that a dangerous cold kept her from school and from the pleasure of appearing in "Blue Beard," given by the faculty as a number on the program of the Chicago High School Teachers' club.
